

Japanese Traditional Wedding at Buddhist Temples

for International Couples

supported by Michinoku Wakon

Buddhist wedding is held at temples where you can experience Japanese culture and history deeply. This Japanese-specific wedding is chosen by a lot of international couples. Michinoku Wakon supports Buddhist wedding at historic temples in Northeast Japan. We are here to provide information for those interested in Japanese traditional wedding.

English speaking staff is available

Michinoku Wakon have English speaking staff and have a lot of experiences to coordinate international wedding. Professional planners coordinate your special day.

Reliable services with professional

Michinoku Wakon supports holding Japanese wedding at various temples and shrine at Tohoku area, including world cultural heritages and Japanese national treasure.

At the temples of world cultural heritage and Japanese national treasure

Chūsonji Temple Hiraizumi

Motsuji Temple Hiraizumi

Zuiganji Temple Matsushima

Saihoji Temple Sendai

Wearing Japanese Kimono

It is a special joy of Buddhist wedding to wear Japanese traditional costumes, Haori-Hakama for Groom and Special Kimono for bride. Especially, elegant and delicate bridal costume will be pleased by guests from overseas.

Special Package for International couples

¥350,000 tax not included

*In addition to this, donations to the temple are required

[Package Includes]

Special Kimono to choose for Bride and Groom
Make-up and Hair-set Head Accessories for Bride
Commemorative Photo Attendant

*We also offer location-photo packages.

Ask Us All about it.

SENDAI Phone: 022-794-7720

9:30-18:30 Off Every Tuesday.

Michinoku Wakon

<https://michinokuwakon.jp/>

Japanese Culture and Tradition

In precincts of temples, culture and history of Japanese Buddhism are alive. Feeling and sharing them together with your partner and guests is one of the most attractive points of Buddhist wedding.